

Organizing New Tribes NOW!

Program Philosophy: To foster a lifetime friendship between father and child. It is a great way for busy dads to spend quality time with their son or daughter. This is Dad's opportunity to be involved in organized activities with his children. You'll never regret it!!!

Participation: Pairs of dads and daughters or dads and sons are organized into individual tribes. Each tribe meets once per month to enjoy an activity together. The meetings are really fun – we play games, make crafts, tell stories, go on hikes, and always have yummy snacks and drinks.

Longhouse: Once per month, all tribes are invited to enjoy a large event together. We do cool things like hayrides, ice skating, tobogganing, pine car racing and camping – most times the whole family is invited!

- Indian Princesses and Indian Guides are separate programs with the common goal of fostering strong relationships between father and child. If you choose to join BOTH programs, the "Dad and 1st Child" fee of $50 applies once and should be paid to the program fitting your oldest child, with the additional per child fee of $10 paid to the other program. Example: Dad and one older daughter and one younger son, total Fee of $60 is due, $50 to Ipany Longhouse and $10 to Old Portage Longhouse.
- Some Longhouse events may have additional charges.
- A child can join the program with their Dad (or male adult sponsor) only.
